COUNCIL COMMITTEE REPORTS

Community Engagement: Mrs. Probasco reported that the 250th Celebration went well and about 150 people attended. Mrs. Probasco stated that it was a good community event between the residents, the AA Group, the Military Color Guard and the County Commissioners (Jim Soro, Art Marchand & Sandy Talyor) who attended.
Thank You letters should be written to each of these groups. There are still some pens and notebooks left.

Mr. Bruso entered the meeting.

Finance: nothing

Infrastructure & Safety: nothing

JIF Insurance: The JIF officials who were here tonight for signatures, commented that the Playground area needs more mulch applied to it.

Parks & Facilities: There was some discussion about receiving a County Recreational Grant and that more funds will be needed or the scope of the project need to be fit the funding we have.

Waste Management: Mayor Campbell stated that the Application for the study is done, it will be for 2027 fiscal year and the design grant is close to being ready as well. They are telling us we need something in writing with Hopewell Township regarding using their system, either something about a "Flow" or "Volume" fee. This will be needed so we can continue moving forward.

Public Comments: No one from the public indicated that they wished to make any comments.

OLD BUSINESS: The Council discussed again about painting the office and Council Room and possibly steam cleaning the carpets. Estimates will be solicited.

NEW BUSINESS: The Planning Board will need to meet to do a Master Plan Review in the next year and discuss Data Centers, which we receive calls about frequently.
